

Legal Terminology Ice Breaker

Match the term with the best explanation on the left. Use any resource to determine your choice/pairing.

	Outcome of a legal case
	Written opinion by the minority of judges who disagree with the majority; does not become part of case law Information provided to a court providing additional information on the particular case before them.
	Formal written enactment written and passed by a legislature Formal written enactment of a legislative body and how it applies to local, state or country Written opinion by a judge who arrived at the same conclusion as the majority, but for different reasons appellate court language that addresses the lower court decision in the affirmative A court's decision on a matter of law Formal change to a law, contract, or legal document judicial opinion arrived at by the majority of judges; one judge typically writes the majority opinion appellate court language that addresses the lower court decision in the negative